Items of Business:

Communication Day - March 14, 2021 will be virtual using WebEx

Record Book Checks – From May 1 to June 10 (required for Fair Entries) will have one major day in late May, more details to follow

Foundation has masks available for sale as a fundraiser this year, $10 ea. They will be going out to the clubs to help with sales.

Review indoor judging sheets and make sure to let Michelle know if any changes are needed.

Ideas to promote the indoor auction at Fair: figure out how to photograph youth with their project and ribbon, then have a slide show/photo display that runs on the screen during the fair

Project Reports:

Photography – currently all virtual meetings, looking to start in person possibly in March – Photoshow is still up in the air, waiting to hear back from the Holter Museum

Leathercraft – working on figuring out workshops and what skills need to be taught first

Pocket Pets – interest level has been good, concentrating on pet snacks, no love pets yet at meetings, will be having pet demonstrations at upcoming meetings

Home Environment – some cool ideas for workshops are in the works, just looking for youth enrollment

Foods/Nutrition – workshops going well, good attendance, preparing for Grand Foods FEB 13

Next Meeting:

FRIDAY February 12, 2021 @ 5:30pm in Extension Office Lower Conference Room

Meeting Adjourned @ 6:20pm
